SURFACE ART ASSOCIATION

The Surface Art Association (SAA) includes artists who work in a variety of media: weaving, painting, collage, sculpture, complex cloth, book arts, paper arts, art to wear, stained glass, jewelry, and mixed media. Some members are exhibiting fine artists and others are just getting started in their creative ventures.

We meet bi-monthly in the Powell Gallery of the Design Center located on the Woodbury University Campus in Burbank, California. Meetings often feature a presentation by a guest speaker.

The SAA is a local chapter of the Surface Design Association, based in the Greater Los Angeles area. We have adopted the Surface Design Association's Mission Statement as our own: "To increase awareness, understanding and appreciation of textiles and surface art in the art and design communities as well as in the general public. We also intend to inspire creativity and encourage innovation and further the rich tradition of textile and surface art through publications, exhibitions, conferences and education opportunities. Membership in SDA is not required to join SAA Surface Art Association general meetings are usually held the 2nd Saturday of every other month ie Feb.,Apr.,Jun.,Aug., Oct., December meeting is the annual SAA holiday party.

Our meetings begin at 10:00am with check in and social time at 9:30am. Business reports and announcements precede the guest speaker presentation. We break for lunch at 12:00 and if there is an afternoon program we reconvene at 1:00pm often in a workshop format. Workshop fees are separate from the meeting.
